

Asian Data Privacy Laws: Navigating the Minefield of Trade and Human Rights

As the global economy becomes increasingly interconnected, the need for comprehensive data privacy laws becomes paramount. Nowhere is this more evident than in Asia, where a complex web of data privacy laws and trade agreements poses significant challenges for businesses and governments alike.

The book "Asian Data Privacy Laws: Trade, Human Rights Perspectives" provides a comprehensive analysis of the data privacy landscape in Asia. It examines the legal and policy frameworks in place in various Asian countries and explores the implications for trade and human rights.
