Emily Spellmaker is not like other girls. She's not interested in boys, makeup, or clothes. She'd rather be reading about science, playing video games, or making up her own spells.

Emily's big sister, Alice, is everything that Emily is not. She's popular, pretty, and outgoing. But despite their differences, Emily and Alice love each other very much.

One day, Emily and Alice are playing in the woods when they come across a magical creature. The creature tells them that Emily has a special gift for magic. Emily is thrilled, but Alice is skeptical.

Emily and Alice decide to team up to find out more about Emily's magic. They go on a series of adventures, where they learn about themselves and each other. Along the way, they make new friends and face challenges, but they always have each other's backs.
